ITINERARY

- 1 Athens / Kalambaka (Meteora) (approx. 380 km)
Depart for the small town of Kalambaka. Upon arrival, you'll have some time on your own for an optional lunch before continuing on to Meteora to visit two of its ancient monasteries. Overnight in Kalambaka. (D)
- 2 Kalambaka / Delphi (approx. 278 km)
Early afternoon arrival in Delphi, where you'll have free time for an optional lunch. Visit the ruins and museum of Delphi, home of the renowned Oracle. Of all the ancient sites in Greece, Delphi is the most compelling! Overnight in Delphi or Arachova. (B, D)
- 3 Delphi / Olympia / Nafplion (approx. 270 km)
Early morning departure for Olympia where you will visit the museum and the site of the first Olympic Games. In the late afternoon, you'll depart for Nafplion. Overnight in Nafplion or Patras. (B, D)
- 4 Nafplion / Epidaurus / Mycenae / Corinth Canal / Athens (approx. 230 km)
After breakfast, you'll depart for the World Heritage Site of Epidaurus. This 4th century theatre is lauded for acoustics so acute that after 23 centuries the drop of a coin on its massive stage can be heard from the back row. Continue on to Mycenae, the legendary Kingdom of Agamemnon, then on to the impressive Corinth Canal. Continue on to Athens, where the Classical Coach Tour ends. (B)
